

JFAC Recommendations

Intercept 4: Reentry Recommendations (Non-Ordered)

- Fund existing community teams doing reentry work in lieu of creating a Monroe County Government team: (Options are not mutually exclusive.)
 - Funding Option 1: Create a Justice Non-Reverting Fund
 - Funding Option 2: Sophia Travis Grants
 - Funding Option 3: Contract for services through the County Commissioners
 - Funding Option 4: Fulfill the Sherriff Department's request to create the Re-Entry Case Manager position in the Monroe County Sherriff's Department
- Implement the Integrated Reentry and Correctional Support (IRACS) program in Monroe County (Commissioner Githens, IN FSSA)
 - Funding would come from the IN FSSA pilot program.
 - Would Monroe County need to fund any part of this pilot?
- Fund Reentry planning, case management, and reentry programming in its treatment plans for inmates with mental illness/SUD and engage community service providers in both in-jail treatment and transition planning. (Eve Hill recommendations on pp. 84-96)
 - See the first bullet point
- Fund a Case Management position in the jail to work with community groups (Eve Hill recommendations on pp. 84-96)
 - See the first bullet point.
- Fund supports for families and peer support (Eve Hill recommendations on pp. 84-96)
 - See the first bullet point
- Fund Housing (Eve Hill recommendations on pp. 84-96)
 - See the first bullet point
- Fund Supported Employment, like Goodwill Industries or WorkOne (Eve Hill recommendations on pp. 84-96)
 - See the first bullet point
- Fund the creation and operational support for a forensic assertive community treatment (FACT) team (Eve Hill recommendations on pp. 84-96)
 - FACT is designed to improve clients' mental health outcomes and daily functioning; reduce recidivism by addressing criminogenic risks and needs; divert individuals in need of treatment away from the criminal justice system; manage costs by reducing reoccurring arrest, incarceration, and hospitalization; and increase public safety. (See <https://store.samhsa.gov/sites/default/files/d7/priv/pep19-fact-br.pdf>)
- Fund programs that reduce silos and duplication of services
 - Health Department and Purdue University Extension service mapping project
 - Create a Commissioner-level Office of Justice Policy and Programs (OJPP) to have responsibility for all County initiatives regarding Justice Grants (JAG, TITLE II JJDP, VAWA, JMHC, and others), reentry planning and program recommendations, domestic violence/intimate partner violence prevention and services, and national Stepping Up and Data Driven Justice involvement. OJPP would also staff a Monroe County Reentry

Advisory Board and represents the County on various local, state, and national organizations, committees, and initiatives. (See Franklin County, OH for a model.)

- 1:1 match for incarceration and reducing recidivism. (Mayor Hamilton)
- Continue funding and strengthen where needed for the Monroe County Reentry Court.

Potential Funding Sources

- Grants (see Ken Ray p. 181)
- Economic Development Income Tax (EDIT)
- American Recovery Plan Act (ARPA) funds
- Monroe County Rainy Day Fund
- Monroe County General Fund
